MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Administration

FROM: Director of Central Intelligence

SUBJECT: Morning Meeting Discussion Items ☐

25X1

1. Following up on a suggestion at our luncheon meeting of Deputy Directors and Independent Office Heads, I'd like to ask you to take the lead in preparing discussion items for one of our forthcoming Morning Meetings. I think one of the titles should be "CIA Retirees." With our coming to the end of the first generation and lots of people retiring, should we be doing more for our retirees? Should we be keeping them better informed? Should we be using them to help us recruit? Should we be using them to help us obtain a better public profile? Are there other ways we can both serve them and encourage them to serve us--perhaps an annual meeting here or various other centers where they are located? Where are the centers located? Also, do we need to do more to help place these people in other jobs when they are ready for retirement? ☐

2. "Recruiting on College Campuses" would be another title. How is our reentry on the campuses going--besides the paint incident at Ohio State? Should we inventory our retired and active employees as to their college of origin and engage them on those campuses in recruiting? Do we really want to recruit on the campuses or do we want people with more experience? Can all of the Directorates help by supplying temporary recruiters for blitz activities on individual campuses? ☐

25X1 3. When you are ready, arrange with the DDCI to schedule this for a time when I will be able to attend and when we can set aside time to discuss it. ☐

4. Feel free to circulate a point paper on this ahead of time if you think it would facilitate the discussion. ☐ 25X1
